Large Opium Seizure.

HONOLULU, Nov. 1.—A trunk consigned to Domingo Ferreira has been found at the Wells Fargo Express Company's office, and when opened was found to contain $10,000 worth of opium. His father and mother have been arrested. He will arrive on the Mongolia this morning. Breckons now has $20,000 worth of opium on hand as a result of his investigations.

The three boys who were arrested for assaulting two girls at the Art Theatre are still in jail. Bail has been refused them by the Court. One of the boys has made a partial confession.

Henry Clark has been ordered to answer questions put to him by the Grand Jury in embezzlement case.

A strong petition has been forwarded to Washington for the retention of W. F. Drake as head of the Internal Revenue Department.

HONOLULU, Oct. 31.—Soldier King, the champion of the Pacific Coast won the fifteen mile race from Antone Kaoo here today in easy style. Kaoo did not seem to be up to his old time form. King won by six laps in 1 hour, 38 minutes 13 seconds.

A half negro helper at the Art Theatre, and two others were arrested for assaulting young girls last night.

Dominguez Ferria, believed to be mixed up in the smuggling business will be arrested on arrival here this morning.

W. H. Lambert, once superintendent of the Hilo railroad, is here trying to interest capitalists in a Philippine venture.

Dombroski, the Russian interpreter has been arrested for swindling his countrymen.

HONOLULU, Oct. 29.—R. H. Daniels and Son, experts in tobacco cultivation, arrived yesterday. They will have charge of the crop of the Kona Tobacco Co.

Lymer was sworn in yesterday as district magistrate. It is probable he will make a clean sweep of the attaches.

Bert Bowers surrendered to the authorities yesterday, on arrival of the Mauna Kea.

Another mortar battery will be asked for the Island of Oahu.

W. R. Castle, prevented the admission of a prohibition resolution at a Chataqua meeting yesterday.

A large number of Portuguese who left here and went to the Coast are returning.

Freedom In Portugal.

LISBON, Oct. 29.—The government of the Republic of Portugal, has issued a decree completely separating Church and State. The freedom of the press and freedom speech is also guaranteed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Traffic is demoralized here on account of the expressmen's strike. Riots and fighting occur hourly.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Refined Sugar dropped fifteen cents per hundred yesterday.

LIMA, PERU, Oct. 29.—Political changes have taken place here during the past few weeks. A new Cabinet will be appointed.

BUENOS AYRES, Oct. 29.—Rumors from Montevideo indicate a serious state of affairs in Uruguay. A revolution is feared.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Roosevelt has been conditionally named by Root as a candidate for President in 1912. If it is found that he cannot be nominated a man who is more radical than Taft may be selected.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—An aviation meet will be held here November 23.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—President Taft will leave November 10, on a trip of inspection of the Canal Zone.

San Francisco Cleaning Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Two men who were connected with the white slave traffic here, have been sentenced to a term of three years in San Quentin.

HONOLULU, Nov. 1.—Owing to a breakdown in the machinery of the Mongolia, that vessel will be held here for repairs by a local firm.

ACAPULCO, Nov. 1.—The schooner Kate arrived here yesterday, and was immediately taken into custody, by the officials.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—President Taft will shortly recommend an increase in postage on 2nd class matter. The increase will be small.

LISBON, Oct. 31.—Ex-Premier Franco has been arrested here for diverting the funds of the late government. He is accused of using the public funds to the amount of half a million Crowns to pay the debts of King Manuel. Thirty-two members of the militia have been arrested for causing disturbance.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The aviation meet here was hotly contested. Several machines flew from Belmont Park, circled the statue of Liberty, and returned.

Governor Cleghorn Dead.

HONOLULU, Nov. 2.—Ex-Governor Cleghorn died here yesterday. There will probably be a public funeral.

Pollitz is here to discuss sugar projects. He is not alarmed at the present low price of sugar stocks, but says that Hawaiian stocks have gone through the same thing before.

Domingo Ferreira, arrived on the Mongolia and was immediately arrested. Some 35 tins of opium were found in a false bottom of a trunk. Ferreira has made a statement implicating others.

From private letters received in Honolulu, from officers of the Pacific fleet, there is no intimation that the fleet will visit Hawaii this winter.
